	Form 15C
	BUILDING-STRUCTURE INVENTORY FORM DIVISION FOR HISTORIC PRESERVATION NEW YORK STATE PARKS AND RECREATION ALBANY, NEW YORK (518) 474-0479
	YOUR NAME:Town of IslipDATE: September 24, 2975Town HallYOUR ADDRESS:655 Main StreetTELEPHONE: (516) 581-2000
	ORGANIZATION (if any): Department of Planning, Housing & Development
	IDENTIFICATION Bldg. [17] 1. BUILDING NAME (S): Central Islip State Hospital's Photo Lab; Originally the 2. COUNTY: Suffolk TOWN/CITY: Islip VILLAGE Central Isl. Laboratory 3. STREET LOCATION: East of Carleton Ave. (east of Group M Buildings) 4. OWNERSHIP: a. public K
	5. PRESENT OWNER: ADDRESS: 6. USE: Original: Laboratory Present: Abandoned Photo Lab
	6. USE: Original: Laboratory Present: Abandoned Photo Lab
	7. ACCESSIBILITY TO PUBLIC: Exterior visible from public road: Yes No IX Permission re- Interior accessible: Explain By appointment only quired.
	8. BUILDING a. clapboard b. stone c. brick k d. board and batten MATERIAL: e. cobblestone f. shingles g. stucco other:
- F	9. STRUCTURAL a. wood frame with interlocking joints □ SYSTEM: b. wood frame with light members □ '(if known) c. masonry load bearing walls xx
	d. metal (explain) e. other ĺ	10. CONDITION: a. excellent \Box b. good \Box c. fair \mathbf{X} d. deteriorated \Box 11. INTEGRITY: a. original site \mathbf{X} b. moved \Box if so,when?
	c. list major alterations and dates (if known):

•	14. THREATS TO BUILDING: a. none known D b. zoning c. roads D
	d. developers c. deterioration
	f. other:
	15. RELATED OUTBUILDINGS AND PROPERTY:
	a. barn b. carriage house c. garage d d. privy e. shed f. greenhouse c
	d. privy 📋 e. shed 🛄 f. greenhouse 🖵
	g. shop h. gardens
	i. landscape features:
	16. SURROUNDINGS OF THE BUILDING (check more than one if necessary):
	a. open land
	c. scattered buildings 🔀 d. densely built-up 🗋 e. commercial 1	d. densely built-up 🗌 e. commercial 🗌
	f. industrial 🔲 g. residential 🗔
	h. other:
	17. INTERRELATIONSHIP OF BUILDING AND SURROUNDINGS:
	(Indicate if building or structure is in an historic district)
	Central Islip State Hospital is located on a 1000 acre wooded property, running from Clayton St. to Southern State Parkway, on both sides of Carleton Ave. The grounds contain buildings from various periods and in various architectural styles, including Tudor and Colonial 18' OTHER NOTABLE FEATURES OF BUILDING AND SITE (including interior features if known):
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents.
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance.
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance.
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT:
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT:
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT: BUILDER: Commercial Const. Co.
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT: BUILDER: Command Const. Co.
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT: BUILDER: Commercial Const. Co. 20. HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL IMPORTANCE: This building was originally the Laboratory for the Central Islip
	This one story brick building has a sate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT: BUILDER:
	This one story brick building has a skte roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT: BUILDER: Commercial Const. Co. 20. HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL IMPORTANCE: This building was originally the Laboratory for the Central Islip State Hospital. In 1913 an important discovery, referred to as "The Breakthrough" took place here. Dr. J.W. Moore and Dr. Neguchi established the connection of general paresis with syphilis by
	This one story brick building has a size roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT: BUILDER: Commercial Const. Co. 20. HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL IMPORTANCE: This building was originally the Laboratory for the Central Islip State Hospital. In 1913 an important discovery, referred to as "The Breakthrough" took place here. Dr. J.W. Moore and Dr. Neguchi established the connection of general paresis with syphilis by discovering the spirocheta pallida in 12 out of 70 brain studies.
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT: BUILDER: Commercial Censt. Co. 20. HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL IMPORTANCE: This building was originally the Laboratory for the Central Islip State Hospital. In 1913 an important discovery, referred to as "The Breakthrough" took place here. Dr. J.W. Moore and Dr. Neguchi established the connection of general paresis with syphilis by discovering the spirocheta pallida in 12 out of 70 brain studies. After use as the Laboratory, the building became a photo lab. It
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT:
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT: BUILDER: Commercial Censt. Co. 20. HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL IMPORTANCE: This building was originally the Laboratory for the Central Islip State Hospital. In 1913 an important discovery, referred to as "The Breakthrough" took place here. Dr. J.W. Moore and Dr. Neguchi established the connection of general paresis with syphilis by discovering the spirocheta pallida in 12 out of 70 brain studies. After use as the Laboratory, the building became a photo lab. It
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT:
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT:
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT:
	This one story brick building has a skte roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT: BUILDER: Commercial Const. Co. 20. HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL IMPORTANCE: This building was originally the Laboratory for the Central Islip State Hospital. In 1913 an important discovery, referred to as "The Breakthrough" took place here. Dr. J.W. Moore and Dr. Neguchi established the connection of general paresis with syphilis by discovering the spirocheta pallida in 12 out of 70 brain studies. After use as the Laboratory, the building became a photo lab. It is abandoned at present. But the one story brick building has its original slate roof, exposed rafter ends, and architraves. 21. SOURCES: Bellsmith, Ethel. History of Central Islip State Hospital; 1887-1946.
	This one story brick building has a skte roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT: BUILDER: Commercial Const. Co. 20. HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL IMPORTANCE: This building was originally the Laboratory for the Central Islip State Hospital. In 1913 an important discovery, referred to as "The Breakthrough" took place here. Dr. J.W. Moore and Dr. Neguchi established the connection of general paresis with syphilis by discovering the spirocheta pallida in 12 out of 70 brain studies. After use as the Laboratory, the building became a photo lab. It is abandoned at present. But the one story brick building has its original slate roof, exposed rafter ends, and architraves.
	This one story brick building has a slate roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT:
	This one story brick building has a skte roof and decorative exposed rafter ends. It has a hipped roof with projecting gabled vents. The nine-over-nine windows have lugsills. There is a four pane transom above the front door. The basement is partially above ground, and has an exterior entrance. SIGNIFICANCE 19. DATE OF INITIAL CONSTRUCTION: circa 1908 ARCHITECT: BUILDER: Commercial Const. Co. 20. HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL IMPORTANCE: This building was originally the Laboratory for the Central Islip State Hospital. In 1913 an important discovery, referred to as "The Breakthrough" took place here. Dr. J.W. Moore and Dr. Neguchi established the connection of general paresis with syphilis by discovering the spirocheta pallida in 12 out of 70 brain studies. After use as the Laboratory, the building became a photo lab. It is abandoned at present. But the one story brick building has its original slate roof, exposed rafter ends, and architraves. 21. SOURCES: Bellsmith, Ethel. History of Central Islip State Hospital; 1887-1946.

Research by the Society for the Preservation of Long Island Antiquities. (judith saltzman)