HISTORY

40 Years Ago

About 30 of the 40 present at the annual school meeting that year were women. Mrs. Francis Hoag was elected the first woman member of the Board of Education, succeeding James Herring who had resigned because of poor health.

30 Years Ago

Berlin Air-Lift planes were coming into MacArthur Field regularly for servicing, showing evidence of the use to which they had been put carrying more than 8,000 tons a day between Frankfurt and Berlin.

20 Years Ago

St. Ann's Parish Hall and annex had been destroyed by fire, the second blaze in 16 years to strike that church. Damage was estimated at $65,000. The church itself was saved.

store was in excellent condition, having made the long trip."

The Public Service Commission which had made an inspection of the new Pennsylvania Railroad terminal in New York, was told that the company had strong hopes of beginning the operation of trains through the tubes running to Long Island by the end of the year. At that time the only means of transportation from Long Island to Manhattan was by ferry.

Twelve men had attended the annual school meeting, which lasted 15 minutes. Charles H. Hulse and Robert Nunns were reelected to the Board of Education. In Bayport Capt. Frank Rogers and A. C. Terry had been elected to the Board, succeeding Mark L'Hommedieu and Charles Brown.

1919 60 Years Ago

Sayville had had a riot, the first and at least until now the last in its history. It was the result of a fight between Karl Bahrs, German owner of what was Beers' Confectionery, (now JoAnn's Potpourri), and Thomas William Mahlan of Bayport. A mob of more than 500 men and boys did considerable damage to the store but were quieted by several officers from Camp Upton, State Troopers and a detachment of Marines from the wireless station. The latter were sent for when it became apparent that the troopers could not arrive in time to avert serious trouble.

Miss Hanby Reid had been married to Herbert Green of Bayport.

50 Years Ago

The Greenport Oyster Co., the principal stockholders in which were John Westerbeke, Mrs. Jacob Ockers, Miss Louise Ockers and Mrs. Stamey Loundes of Northport had been sold to Lester and Toner, a New York wholesale oyster concern.

The 25th anniversary of the founding of St. John's Lutheran Church of Holbrook was being celebrated.
