20. HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL IMPORTANCE:

This residence is one of the few remaining architecturally significant houses on Main Street. It is one and one-half stories and has a gable roof. There is a four bay front porch with square posts. There is a projecting bay window to the left of the porch. The corners of the house are pilastered. There are five front second story windows - three-over-3 casements. The front first story and east side windows are six-over-six and have slightly projecting triangular heads. The front door has four pane narrow sidelights. There is a one story wing on the west side. There are symmetrically placed chimneys at the sides of the main section.

This may have been the Eugene Mack house on the 1915 maps.

Additional Information on
Dr. Mary Holt House
East Main Street, Bay Shore

This is considered to be one of the oldest houses in Bay Shore, circa 1810 - 1820. Previous to 1900 it was owned by Mr. Gibson, who had an upholstery and cabinet-making shop in the rear. After Mr. Gibson, the house was owned by the Mack Family, as is indicated in the 1915 E. Belcher Hyde Atlas.
