18.	33 Saxon Avenue is located on the east side of the road with four similiar houses that stand northward on the east side of Saxon Avenue. The small conner lot contains four large trees equally spaced at the property line. A large, modern institution building on a large open lot stands directly wes OTHER NOTABLE FEATURES OF BUILDING AND SITE (including interior features if known):
	33 Saxon Avenue is a $2\frac{1}{2}$ story, three bay, hip roof, stucco house with a triangle dormer at the center of the principle facade roof slope. An open porch fills the middle section of the main facade and an enclosed porch fills the ground story of the narrow south facade.

20.	HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL IMPORTANCE:
	This Arts & Crafts style house is one of five similiar examples on the east side of Saxon Avenue that apparently were built by William H. Moffitt perhaps for summer rentals. Bay Shore was a popular summer resort in the early years of the 20th century. This small area was called Olympic Park in 1915.
